Samuel S. Wesley (1864)

1. The church has one foun - da - tion, 'Tis Je - sus Christ her Lord;
2. E - lect from ev - ery na - tion, Yet one o'er all the earth,
3. Though with a scorn - ful won - der, Men see her sore op - pressed,
4. 'Mid toil and trib - u - la - tion, And tu - mult of her war,

She is His new cre - a - tion, By wa - ter and the word;
Her char - ter of sal - va - tion, One Lord, one faith, one birth;
Though foes would rend a - sun - der The Rock where she doth rest,
She waits the con - sum - ma - tion Of peace for - ev - er - more;

From heaven He came and sought her To be His ho - ly bride;
One ho - ly name she bless - es, Par - takes one ho - ly food,
Yet saints their faith are keep - ing; Their cry goes up, "How long?"
Till with the vi - sion glo - rious her long - ing eyes are blest,

With His own blood He bought her, And for her life He died.
And to one hope she press - es, With ev - ery grace en - dued.
And soon the night of weep - ing Shall be the morn of song.
And the great church vic - to - rious Shall be the church at rest.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves, a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom, both in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps). The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The lyrics are printed below the staves, aligned with the notes. The text is: 'With His own blood He bought her, And for her life He died. And to one hope she press - es, With ev - ery grace en - dued. And soon the night of weep - ing Shall be the morn of song. And the great church vic - to - rious Shall be the church at rest.' The lyrics are arranged in four lines, with hyphens indicating words that span across two lines of music.
